Becomes Bride of Leonard Keb- Many to Compete in Benefit at Mrs. H. P. Whitney's Studio.

Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage on Saturday of Mrs. Edythe C. Armstrong Brandreth, divorced wife of Ralph Brandreth, the son of the late pill manufacturer, and Leonard Kebler of Bronxville. The marriage was performed at Waterford, Conn.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Samuel Swisher, B. D., pastor of All Souls Unitarian-Universalist Church. There were no bridal attendants. The bride has been occupying the Wilson cottage at the Oswegatchie golony all summer. After the wedding the couple left on a honeymoon trip. How long they will be away or where they will make their future home could not be learned.

Mr. Kebler is president of the Ward Leonard Electric Company of Bronx-ville and lives in that village. His bride, daughter of John H. Armstrong, vice-president of the New York Savings Bank, was divorced from Ralph Brandreth in March, 1914.

The Brandreth-Armstrong marriage was romantic. The couple were married while the bride, injured in an automobile with Brandreth a few days earlier, lay of awards, of which Thomas Hastings.
